

Attention, Artists:

TMS Presents:

Glowing Jack-o-Lantern Art Festival, Story Time for Kids, & Autumn Refreshments

Local artists are needed for jack-o-lantern artwork to be showcased at a charitable event.

Creations can be very small or very large (up to 200 square feet, any shape.)

Event Information:

Friday & Saturday Night, October 24-25, 2014 @ 6:00—8:30 pm

@ the Torrington Middle School

Open to Public; $5 per ticket; free for elementary students & younger

Any profits will benefit The Torrington Library's children's department in honor of the library's 150th anniversary.

Event's Mission:

Promote literacy and art by showcasing guest readers, local artists, and local food vendors.

Information for artists and contact info are located on the back of this flyer.

Jack-o-Lantern Art (benefitting the Torrington Library)

Information and Contact Info for Artists:

The venue is the Torrington Middle School Courtyard, which is roughly 20 x 40 meters in size. Each of the 80 windows looking into the courtyard will have glowing designs to accentuate the scene.

These are the only guidelines for creations:

- Use up to 200 square feet of space, any shape
- The majority of the piece should consist of jack-o-lanterns
- Ruwet Farm will sell pumpkins at a discount to artists involved in this event.
- Battery powered candle lights are preferred, any color (some are available upon request); no actual flames
- There are 20 spaces available; you may reserve more than one
- If you have an alternative artistic idea that fits the event's theme, let us know!

In return, you may provide business cards or flyers to promote your own projects or services.

Email or call for more information or to reserve spaces. The deadline to reserve a space is Monday, September 22.

ascalabrese@torrington.org

860-480-2946

